Charlie's help in promoting the sport of paddleball is unprecedented. He was one of the original players of the Pacific Paddleball Association. The strength and development of the talent of the West Coast players is largely due to the unflagging determination of "THE HOLDER OF ALL TITLES."

He was awarded the 2004 Earl Riskey, an annual National Paddleball Association award recognizing significant contributions to the sport of paddleball.

Charlie is one of the best players in the history of the NPA. A list of his thirteen National NPA Championships at the date of induction follows:
